

Workshop Terms and Conditions

Thank you for your interest in participating in one of FitzSimmons Photography's workshops. We strive to provide you with the best possible educational experience. Below is an overview of our workshop policies. If you have any questions, please ask us.

Travel Arrangements: Transportation, room, and board are not included in your workshop registration unless otherwise indicated. FitzSimmons photography may have reserved accommodations at one or more locations, but staying at any of these locations is not a requirement of workshop participation, nor is it an indication of availability of lodging, quality of premises, or any other guarantee of travel arrangements. All travel arrangements are the sole responsibility of workshop participants. Workshop registration does not include airfare, ground transportation, or any other travel services. At workshop locations, we may travel to various sites. Unless otherwise indicated, FitzSimmons Photography and workshop administrators will not provide transportation. While leaders may assist participants in organizing carpools, FitzSimmons Photography assumes not responsibility for these travel arrangements. Each participant is sole responsible for all transportation. Please bring your own drinks, food, and other supplies. Meals will not be provided unless otherwise indicated.

Pricing and Payments: All workshop fees are in U.S. Dollars. Workshops are arranged a year or more in advance. Workshops may be arrange a year or more in advance. FitzSimmons photography reserves the right to increase workshop prices without prior notice to offset costs as increased facility fees. If you have registered already, your price will not increase. Payments are to be made through PayPal using our online registration forms. If you wish to pay by check, please contact FitzSimmons Photography to make special arrangements.

Refunds and Cancellations: You may cancel your registration up to 30 days in advance of your workshop, receiving a full refund less $100 administration fee. No refund will be issue within 30 days of the workshop unless your spot is filled, in which case you will receive a full refund less the $100 administration fee. If a program is cancelled or you register when a workshop is full, your full payment will be refunded. All workshop registrants are encouraged to purchase travel insurance, including trip cancellation and interruption insurance.

Workshop Cancellation: FitzSimmons Photography reserves the right to cancel workshops for any reason, including under enrollment, local conditions, and other reasons. If FitzSimmons Photography cancels your workshop, you will receive a full refund of your registration. In the event of a cancellation, FitzSimmons Photography is not responsible for any other costs, including such items as non-refundable airfare, hotel reservations, car rentals, or any other fees.

Health Considerations: Most photography workshops include field sessions in direct contact with natural, wild conditions. FitzSimmons Photography does not warrant the safety of individuals in the workshop locations. Unless otherwise indicated, all workshops are designed for the capabilities of average people in good health. We may walk several miles, climb and descend natural topography, climb along rocks, step on or off small boats, hike at high elevations, or be exposed to other natural conditions found at each of our workshop locations. Your registration for a specific workshop indicates that you do not knowingly have any conditions or disabilities that would limit your participation in the workshop, limit your participation or the participation of others, or create a risk for you or any other workshop participants or leaders. You realize that medical professionals, emergency services, or other health services are not provided and may not be available close-by.

Weather Conditions: FitzSimmons Photography is not responsible for weather conditions as they affect such things, but not limited to personal health, or landscape conditions, photographic opportunities, integrity of your gear and other personal property, rental cars and other rented property, emergency medical services, dietary requirements, delays in travel arrangements such as airline or train schedules, lodging conditions, or the participation of others, including participants and group leaders.

Workshop Leadership: One or more representatives of FitzSimmons Photography and/or workshop sponsors will be present at the workshop. Group leaders indicated on the program descriptions will be present. If something comes up, such that a designated group leader is not able to attend, every effort will be made to notify workshop participants of changes in workshop plans. While other representatives may be present, such as workshop administrators or assistants, their presence does not necessarily indicate expertise in the workshop content.

Liability Waiver: A liability waiver will be emailed to you and must be completed and signed 30 days before your participation in a workshop.

Terms and Conditions: Your submission of registration indicates that you agree to these terms, serves as a release from our liability from all perils, and serves as a release indicating that you assume all risks to you or anyone associated to you, including family, heirs, administrators, executors, assigns, or other officials. Your submission of registration indicates that you understand all workshops involve some risk and that you are will to release the workshop administrator(s) from all liability and indemnify FitzSimmons Photography, Dave FitzSimmons, and program leaders, administrators, and assistants against any damages.

Thank you for reviewing these terms and conditions. We look forward to seeing you in one our exciting workshops!
